

Arthur G. Carlyle

School of Philosophy, Religion and History of Science
University of Leeds
Leeds
LS2 9JT

pragc@leeds.ac.uk
a.carlyle2014@gmail.com
arthurgcarlyle.com

Areas of Specialisation: Philosophy of Science (esp. Biology), Metaphysics (esp. Personal Identity)

Areas of Competence: Ethics (esp. Medical Ethics and Bioethics), Philosophy of Mind and Cognition

Education

Expected September 2020	PhD in Philosophy University of Leeds Thesis: “A Structuralist Approach to Animalism” Supervisors: Ellen Clarke, Helen Steward, Steven French
2016	MA in Philosophy (with honours) University of Kansas Thesis: “Organisms and the extended self: a re-evaluation” Supervisor: Armin Schulz Committee: Armin Schulz (chair), Sarah Robins, Corey Maley
2014	BA in Philosophy (cum laude , distinctions in major) Hartwick College Minor: Cognitive Science

Professional Qualifications

June 2020 Associate Fellow of the Higher Education Academy (AFHEA)

Teaching Experience (Teaching Assistant)

Defining Death: What is human death? When does it occur? What ethical difference does it make?
(Personally developed): University of Leeds, Autumn 2019 – Spring 2020

Medical Ethics (Georgia Testa): University of Leeds, Autumn 2019 – Spring 2020

Knowledge, Self and Reality (Robin Le Poidevin): University of Leeds, Spring 2019

The Structure of Reality (Steven French): University of Leeds, Autumn 2018

Introduction to Philosophy of Religion (Scott Shalkowski): University of Leeds, Autumn 2018

How Science Works (Ellen Clarke): University of Leeds, Spring 2018

Great Philosophical Thinkers (Nick Jones): University of Leeds, Autumn 2017

Introduction to Ethics (Lara Giordano): University of Kansas, Autumn 2015 – Spring 2016

Introduction to Philosophy (Sarah Robins): University of Kansas, Autumn 2014 – Spring 2015

Teaching Experience (Miscellaneous)

Tutor for the Kansas Athletics Tutoring Program: University of Kansas, Autumn 2015 – Spring 2016

Presentations

“Identity, medical ethics, and the problem of necrophilia.” Philosophy PG Seminar, University of Leeds, March 2019

“Structuring death: a case for Somatic Animalism.” Philosophy PG Seminar, University of Leeds, February 201

“A structural realist approach to biological individuality.” Philosophy PG Seminar, University of Leeds, December 2018

“Forensic human identification as a defence of somatic animalism.” Guest speaker for Phi Sigma Tau: The International Honor Society for Philosophy (Hartwick College chapter), Hartwick College, March 2018 (Invited)

“A new foundation for animalism: a division of labour and the need for a scientific metaphysics.” University of Leeds HPS Work-in-Progress Seminar, University of Leeds, May 2017

“Why an organism concept is not useful: a historical and philosophical analysis.” The Past, Present and Future of Integrated HPS: An International Postgraduate Forum, University of Leeds, January 2017

Workshops Organised

March 2019 Interdisciplinary Workshop on Evolution and Ecology at Leeds. Co organised with Helen Piel, Leonardo Miele, and Robert West.

Awards/Honours/Grants

2016 Robinson Essay Contest; awarded for an early draft of “Organisms and the extended self: a re-evaluation,” University of Kansas

2014 Graduate Teaching Assistantship, University of Kansas

Popular Articles and Blogs

“Self and Society Extended Piece: Arthur Carlyle on Animalism and Society” Lawrence Talks! Posted on 29 July 2018.

“HPS in 20 Objects Lecture 14: Coral, or, A fragile enigma brings lessons from the shallows” Museum of the HSTM, University of Leeds. Posted on 7 June 2017.

References available upon request