

Arthur G. Carlyle

Department of Philosophy
Hartwick College
1 Hartwick Drive
Oneonta, NY 13820

CarlyleA@Hartwick.edu
607.431.4872
arthurgcarlyle.com

Education

September 2021	PhD in Philosophy University of Leeds Thesis: “A Structuralist Approach to Animalism” Supervisors: Ellen Clarke, Helen Steward, Steven French Viva Examiners: Eric Olson (external), Gregory Radick (internal)
May 2016	MA in Philosophy (with honours) University of Kansas Thesis: “Organisms and the extended self: a re-evaluation” Supervisor: Armin Schulz Defence Committee: Sarah Robins, Corey Maley, Armin Schulz (chair)
May 2014	BA in Philosophy (cum laude , distinctions in major) Hartwick College Minor: Cognitive Science

Research Interests

AOS: Philosophy of Science (esp. philosophy of biology), Metaphysics (esp. Personal Identity), Death
AOC: Ethics (esp. Bioethics)

Employment

August 2021 – Present	Lecturer, Hartwick College
August 2022 – December 2022	Lecturer, Hamilton College
September 2017 – June 2021	Postgraduate Tutor, University of Leeds
August 2015 – June 2016	Tutor, Kansas Athletics Tutoring Program, University of Kansas
August 2014 – June 2016	Graduate Teaching Assistant, University of Kansas

Professional Qualifications

June 2020 Associate Fellow of the Higher Education Academy (AFHEA)

Teaching Experience (* Denotes full or partial virtual teaching)

*2023 'Death in Medical Ethics,' Hartwick College; Listed as a One-on-One Directed Study course

*2023 'My Body, My Choice,' Hartwick College; Listed as a One-on-One Directed Study course

2023 'Philosophy of Forensic Science,' Hartwick College; Cross-listed as a Criminal Justice course

2022, 2023 'Science vs. Religion in Modern Philosophical Thought,' Hartwick College

2022 'Telling Right from Wrong,' Hamilton College

2021, 2022 'Happiness,' Hartwick College

2021, 2022 'Bioethics,' Hartwick College

2022 'Propaganda and Democracy,' Hartwick College

Postgraduate Teaching

*2021 'Knowledge, Self and Reality' (Helen Steward), University of Leeds

*2021 'The Good, the Bad, the Right, the Wrong' (Daniel Elstein), University of Leeds

*2021 'The Mind' (Léa Salje), University of Leeds

*2020 'How to Think Clearly and Argue Well' (John Divers), University of Leeds

*2020 'Moral Philosophy' (Jessica Isserow), University of Leeds

2019 – 2020, *2020 'Medical Ethics' (Georgia Testa), University of Leeds

2019 – 2020 'Defining Death: What is human death? When does it occur? What ethical difference does it make?' (Personally developed), University of Leeds

2019	'Knowledge, Self and Reality' (Robin Le Poidevin), University of Leeds
2018	'The Structure of Reality' (Steven French), University of Leeds
2018	'Introduction to Philosophy of Religion' (Scott Shalkowski), University of Leeds
2018	'How Science Works' (Ellen Clarke), University of Leeds
2017	'Great Philosophical Thinkers' (Nick Jones), University of Leeds
2015 – 2016	'Introduction to Ethics' (Lara Giordano), University of Kansas
2014 – 2016	Introduction to Philosophy (Sarah Robins), University of Kansas
Miscellaneous
2015 – 2016	Tutor, Kansas Athletics Tutoring Program, University of Kansas

Presentations

- “Identity, medical ethics, and the problem of necrophilia.” Philosophy PG Seminar, University of Leeds, March 2019
- “Structuring death: a case for Somatic Animalism.” Philosophy PG Seminar, University of Leeds, February 2019
- “A structural realist approach to biological individuality.” Philosophy PG Seminar, University of Leeds, December 2018
- “Forensic human identification as a defence of somatic animalism.” Guest speaker for Phi Sigma Tau: The International Honor Society for Philosophy (Hartwick College chapter), Hartwick College, March 2018 (Invited)
- “A new foundation for animalism: a division of labour and the need for a scientific metaphysics.” University of Leeds HPS Work-in-Progress Seminar, University of Leeds, May 2017
- “Why an organism concept is not useful: a historical and philosophical analysis.” The Past, Present and Future of Integrated HPS: An International Postgraduate Forum, University of Leeds, January 2017

Workshops Organised

- | | |
|------------|---|
| March 2019 | Interdisciplinary Workshop on Evolution and Ecology at Leeds. Co-organised with Helen Piel, Leonardo Miele, and Robert West |
|------------|---|

Awards/Grants

- 2016 Robinson Essay Contest; awarded for an early draft of “Organisms and the extended self: a re-evaluation,” University of Kansas
- 2014 Graduate Teaching Assistantship, University of Kansas

Publications (Blogs)

- “Self and Society Extended Piece: Arthur Carlyle on Animalism and Society” Lawrence Talks! Posted on 29 July 2018. [Invited]
- “HPS in 20 Objects Lecture 14: Coral, or, A fragile enigma brings lessons from the shallows” Museum of the HSTM, University of Leeds. Posted on 7 June 2017. [Invited]

Manuscripts in Preparation

- “Biological individuality: a structural approach.”
- “Structural animalism.”
- “The metaphysics of identity and death: implications regarding forensic science”

References available upon request